

FIRST LEGAL HISTORY TRAVEL GRANT WINNERS ANNOUNCED

EARLIER THIS YEAR, the California Supreme Court Historical Society established a research grant program to help defray the travel and archival-related expenses of graduate students and law students pursuing research on California legal history.

The fund has now awarded its first grants, to Taylor Cozzens, a history master's student at the University of Oklahoma, and Smita Ghosh, a Ph.D. candidate at the University of Pennsylvania.

Ghosh's research relates to her dissertation on the history of immigrant detention, and the grant will help fund her travel to several archives in Los Angeles and the Bay Area. Cozzens' research focuses on the history of the California Rural Legal Assistance organization during the 1970s. The non-profit CRLA, founded in 1966, provides legal services to California's low-income individuals and communities. The grant will enable Cozzens to work with materials in Stanford University's Special Collections.

The Society congratulates these young scholars.

The Legal History Travel Grant is funded by the generosity of California Supreme Court Justice Kathryn Mickle Werdegar (Ret.) and David M. Werdegar, M.D., in honor of Selma Moidel Smith, editor-in-chief of California Legal History.
