YEARBOOK 1994

THE CALIFORNIA SUPREME COURT HISTORICAL SOCIETY YEARBOOK is issued annually by the California Supreme Court Historical Society, 555 Franklin St., San Francisco, California 94102-4498.

Membership in the society includes a subscription to the YEARBOOK. Libraries, individuals and institutions are invited to apply for membership at the following levels of annual charges: Subscribing, $25-49; Advocate, $50-99; Sustaining, $100-249; Grantor, $250-499; Sponsor, $500-749, Steward, $750-999; Founder, $1,000 or more. Law-firm and corporate categories of membership are at levels ranging from $250 to $2,500 or more. Fulltime students presenting documentation of their status may obtain subscriptions at $10 per year. Further information is available from Lee W. Cake, Executive Director, at the above address (phone 415-561-8894).

The YEARBOOK welcomes submission of manuscripts on California legal history, including especially history of the judiciary and history of the state's constitutional and common law. Articles on the legal profession and on the relationship of law to political, economic, social and cultural change in California's history will also be considered; so also will be documents and pictorial materials of historical significance. Prior inquiry to the Editor is advisable. Submissions are reviewed by independent scholarly referees.

All editorial correspondence should be directed to the Editor: Harry N. Scheiber, Center for the Study of Law and Society, Boalt Hall School of Law, University of California, Berkeley, CA 94720-2150 (FAX 510 642-2951).
