

Beth H. Parker

Beth H. Parker is currently General Counsel for Planned Parenthood California Central Coast and an Adjunct Professor at UC Hastings School of Law. She has also served as General Counsel for two other Planned Parenthood affiliates and was Chief Legal Counsel for Planned Parenthood Affiliates of California. Before joining Planned Parenthood, Beth was a partner at Arnold & Porter, Bingham McCutchen, and McCutchen, Doyle, Brown & Enersen in San Francisco. She practiced complex civil and constitutional litigation and served as a mediator for the U.S. District Court. Among other high-profile matters, while in private practice, Beth litigated more than twenty reproductive rights cases. Beth is a graduate of Harvard Law School and Yale University (BA, magna cum laude, Honors in Major Architecture and Urban Studies).